

Building Information Modeling, Integrated Project Delivery, Underground Utilities and E-Discovery: What Every Design Firm Should Know

Kibble & Prentice and Skellenger Bender invite you to a seminar specifically addressing the risk management needs of design professionals. Skellenger Bender attorneys Beth Andrus, Terence Scanlan and Lindsey Pflugrath will discuss:

- Legal issues relating to Building Information Modeling and Integrated Project Delivery projects
- Lessons learned for design firms working on projects involving underground utilities (Case Study)
- E-Discovery: Legal requirements for disclosure in litigation

Completion of this seminar qualifies for three AIA learning units. To RSVP, please contact professional.liability@kpcom.com or Donna Snyder at (206) 695-3126 by Wednesday, April 28, 2010. Please forward this invitation to other members of your firm who may be interested in attending. Seating is limited. No-host parking is available in several lots and garages surrounding each venue.
